

Buying solar power panels

Overview

Can you buy solar panels yourself?

While it is possible for homeowners to buy solar panels themselves, either used or directly from the manufacturer, there are a few reasons to buy them through an installer. Design a custom solar system and compare quotes online. The back way into buying solar panels is buying a house that already has solar panels installed.

How do I buy solar panels?

How you choose to buy solar panels depends on your financial situation and your savings goals. Paying cash is the simplest way to buy solar panels and offers the greatest return on investment. Cash purchases are typically made in 3-4 installments. For example:.

Where can I buy solar equipment?

Like wholesale resellers, Amazon is another way to purchase solar equipment directly. Many people commonly purchase solar panel kits from Amazon that include the majority of equipment necessary for getting a solar panel system up and running (i.e., wiring, solar panels, the inverter, etc.).

Where can I buy wholesale solar panels?

It's currently not possible for consumers to purchase wholesale solar panels directly from panel manufacturers. One of the biggest benefits of buying from wholesale resellers or other websites is that the equipment is relatively affordable compared to other options when searching for where to buy solar panels.

Are solar panels for sale?

For a full installation, solar installers have "solar panels for sale" around the country. What they really mean is a complete, ready-to-use system on your property. It's always best to compare your options before buying solar panels.

You can start for free on the EnergySage Marketplace and compare solar quotes from local, pre-screened installers.

Should you buy or lease solar panels?

Now that we know the basics of buying solar panels, let's explore the advantages of buying versus leasing your solar system. The major difference is who owns the system. With a 30% tax credit available, ownership typically offers greater savings potential.
