Government subsidy for foldable solar container in Romania

Overview

The Support Scheme is open for microenterprises, SMEs and large companies alike (newly incorporated companies included) active in electricity generation, subject to fulfilling conditions typical for accessing state aid schemes, i.e. good standing.

Project-related expenses will be eligible if they comply with the regulatory framework and the Support Scheme's requirements and are included in the offer submitted by applicants. 1. Expenses for small projects (ranging between 0.2 MW and 1 MW) are 100 % eligible as a.

Proposed projects must also fulfil certain eligibility criteria, the most important being: 1. only new wind and solar power plants (with or without integrated energy storage capacities) eligible;

The Support Scheme funds are awarded through competitive tender proceedings. Therefore, submitting an offer does not guarantee automatic selection for financing. Nevertheless, investors have the opportunity to re-submit an offer within further tender calls, if.
