Italy's €9.7 billion scheme will support the construction of 17.65GW of new renewables capacity. Credit: Glyn Lowe via Flickr. The European Commission (EC) has approved a €9.7 billion (US$10.2 billion) Italian aid scheme to spur the growth of renewables. Approved under the State aid Temporary.

Italy has set aside 5.7 billion euros for Renewable Energy Communities (RECs) 1. This shows its strong support for renewable energy. The goal is to make 40% of energy come from renewables by 2030 2. The European Commission has given the green light for 4,590 MW of new renewable energy capacity 3.

The Conto Termico 3.0 scheme is set to transform Italy's renewable energy landscape, particularly in the residential PV and Energy Storage sector. This long-anticipated update introduces a broader range of subsidies for households and businesses investing in solar, energy storage, EV charging, and.

The European Commission has approved, under EU State aid rules, a €5.7 billion Italian scheme made available in part through the Recovery and Resilience Facility ('RRF') to support the production and self-consumption of renewable electricity. The scheme contributes to the EU's strategic objectives.

Explore a new state aid scheme helping Italy to work toward a cleaner future and investing in onshore wind, solar PV, hydropower, and sewage gas projects. How will the scheme help Italy expand its renewable energy capacity?

How will the state aid scheme help Italy achieve its and the EU's climate.
