Overview

What is a flexible solar module?

FLEX modules conform to curved surfaces, enabling solar power generation on surfaces not suited to traditional rigid silicon panels. Flexible solar modules are thin (2.5mm) and adhere directly to surfaces, providing excellent wind and seismic resistance. The modules are also shatterproof, and won't break if struck by debris.

How much weight can a solar panel hold?

Less than 2.4 kg/m (<0.5 lb/ft). Because flexible solar modules are so much lighter than heavy rigid silicon panels mounted with racks, they are best solution for building structures with low dead load and environmental load limitations (such as snow).

What makes flexible solar panels different?

Our flexible solar panel adopts CIGS technology, which has an aperture efficiency as high as 17%, rivaling that of rigid glass panels. We begin with high-grade stainless steel foil and use an advanced semiconductor deposition process, PVD, to produce the most controlled, stable, and powerful flexible stainless steel CIGS cell in the world.
