Kuwait's average solar intake is about 9-11 hours per day, with an average daily solar insolation that can reach more than 7.0 kWh/m<sup>2</sup>/day. The solar PV installation cost dropped significantly from USD 4,731 per kilowatt to USD 883 per kilowatt in 2021. While the installation cost of concentrated.

Over the past five years, the costs of solar Photovoltaics (PV) modules and systems have declined by about 65–70%. This has reduced solar's levelized cost of electricity (LCoE) dramatically. In areas with high solar-irradiation, the cost of generation of solar energy is now about $100/MWh. Thus.

The Kuwait solar energy market has experienced significant growth in recent years due to the country's commitment to renewable energy sources. Solar power has emerged as a key component of Kuwait's sustainable development strategy, aiming to diversify its energy mix and reduce reliance on fossil.

The model results indicate that by 2030 the cost-effective RE share is 11% of electricity generation in the Reference case and 8% the case with the nuclear option. The RE technologies alone provide a 2030 net-back value compared to the Reference case of US$2.35 billion, while in the nuclear case.

NCAR's Renewable Energy Forecasting for Kuwait project, a 3-year, $5.1M project sponsored by the Kuwait Institute for Scientific Research (KISR) (<https://news.ucar.edu/126802/ncar-develop-advanced-wind-and-solar-energy-forecasting-system-kuwait>), began in July 2017.
