What is a solar panel mounting rail?

Solar Panel Mounting Rails are a metal rail that protect solar panels against buckling while safely and efficiently transferring loads from the ground up into the structure. Solar panels experience countless extreme weather conditions throughout their lifetimes.

What is a solar panel roof mount?

A solar panel roof mount (also called a solar racking mount or solar system mount) will hold your solar panels and system in place. The mounting system is a crucial component because it is responsible for securing and stabilizing the solar panels on your roof without compromising the roof's stability or water tightness.

Which solar mounting rail should I Choose?

Depending on your location, there is an XR Rail to match. XR1000® is a heavyweight among solar mounting rails. It's built to handle extreme climates, spanning 12 feet or more for commercial applications. XR100® is the ultimate residential mounting rail. What is solar racking?

Solar racking, also known as PV racking, is the process of mounting solar panels to a structure. This can be a roof, a ground-mounted system or even a pole mount. Solar racking involves choosing and installing the components and systems needed to support and secure your solar array. The type of racking system you need will vary depending.

What are the different types of racking for photovoltaic (PV) systems?

The two most popular types of racking for photovoltaic (PV) systems are ground and roof mounts. Ground mounts are typically used in large-scale solar projects and can be used with tilt angles that range from 0 to 40 degrees. The angle is important as it will determine the amount of sunlight your solar panels will receive over the course of a year.
