Argentina has taken a major step toward modernizing its energy infrastructure with the launch of a 500 MW battery energy storage system (BESS) tender under the AlmaGBA program. Aimed at enhancing grid reliability in the metropolitan area of Buenos Aires (AMBA), this $500 million initiative marks.

The Argentina Battery Energy Storage System (BESS) market is experiencing significant growth driven by increasing renewable energy integration, grid stability concerns, and government initiatives to promote energy storage projects. The country's ambitious renewable energy targets, such as.

Argentina has successfully concluded its first battery energy storage tender, awarding 667 MW of capacity – around 30% more than the originally planned 500 MW – due to strong industry interest and competitive pricing. The awarded projects are part of the Alma-GBA tender, which targets critical.

In February 2025, Argentina's Energy Secretariat, under the Ministry of Economy, initiated an international tender to integrate 500 megawatts (MW) of battery energy storage systems (BESS) into the Metropolitan Area of Buenos Aires (AMBA). This ambitious project, estimated at $500 million, aims to.
