

Wholesale price of power container in South Africa

Overview

Are shipping containers still made in South Africa?

There used to be two factories in South Africa that made new containers, but unfortunately didn't survive. This has been a world-wide phenomenon with most shipping containers now manufactured in China. Secondhand containers are a hot commodity when they reach the end of their shipping life.

Why are secondhand shipping containers so popular in South Africa?

This has been a world-wide phenomenon with most shipping containers now manufactured in China. Secondhand containers are a hot commodity when they reach the end of their shipping life. In South Africa there is an informal grading system which attempts to categorise these containers according to their cosmetic appearance.

What factors affect the cost of shipping containers in South Africa?

Several elements impact the cost of shipping containers in South Africa:
Condition: New containers are more expensive than used ones. Refurbished containers offer a middle ground in terms of price and quality. Size: Larger containers (40ft) typically cost more than smaller ones (20ft), but they offer better value per cubic meter.

Why should you buy a container in South Africa?

Whether you need a mobile office, spaza shop, or secure storage, our containers are built to last, with wind- and water-tight designs. According to a 2024 industry report by IBISWorld, the South African container market is growing at 4.2% annually, driven by demand for modular solutions in construction and retail.

How big is the container market in South Africa?

According to a 2024 industry report by IBISWorld, the South African container market is growing at 4.2% annually, driven by demand for modular solutions in construction and retail. From mining sites in Limpopo to urban projects in Johannesburg, we deliver nationwide with crane trucks for efficient setup.

Why are containers so expensive in South Africa?

This is because stock availability of containers varies in each region. Limited stock in a particular region means that the cost of sourcing containers will increase container prices slightly. Unfortunately, container fraud is rampant in South Africa and if you're not careful you could get scammed.
